✓ On Thursday of last week, Harry SICKLER, aged 9, of Falls Twp., was run over by the cars on the line of the DL&W at Factoryville. His left leg was crushed and cut off near the top and his left arm was cut off near the elbow. The accident occurred about 2 in the afternoon, and the boy died at 11:30 that night. His mother died about 8 years ago and he lived with his father, Mathew SICKLER, in Falls Twp. About 2 weeks before the accident he had gone to Factoryville to visit cousins about his age by the name of COBB. The railroad passes near the COBB residence and the boys were in the habit of jumping on the trains as they moved slowly by up the heavy grade and riding a short distance, then jumping off. It was while enjoying that sport that the accident occurred. The remains were taken to his home, where the funeral was held on Sunday afternoon. He was the grandson of Asher FITCH, of Falls Twp.

Fitch PATRICK letter at Wilkesbarre

The Gleaner 1815

Published on Friday, at Wilkes-Barre by Charles Miner

6 Jan. 1815

Life of Jesse Duncan ELLIOT, Esq. of the US Navy, born in Maryland on 14 July 1780. His father, Robert, was unfortunately slain by the Indians in 1794, near the Muskingum River, while transacting business for the US Army. [See article for more, also continued in future issues].

Thomas CROFT, alias John ROGERS, and James ROBINSON, alias James ELMIRE, were executed lately at Fort Mifflin, agreeably, to the sentence of a court martial. Jacob FILE who was sentenced to be shot, was reprieved.

At Evansburgh, Montgomery Co, on the 15th inst. Mary MORGAN, aged about 8 years, was killed instantly by the passage of a waggon wheel over her head. Three waggons were in company, and she is supposed to have slipped and fallen down. The Jury in the case decided that the child was killed accidentally

Rev. John GEMMIL, died the 14th ult. at his residence in West Chester, Chester Co., Pennsylvania, aged 54 years. He was late a senator of Pennsylvania - Principal of West-Chester Academy.

A quantity of Flour For Sale, A good ten Plate Stove. by J. & J. SINTON, Wilkes-Barre.

An additional duty of 20 cents per gallon on Whisky, is to commence on the first of February.

Died - In this town week last, an infant daughter of John J. WARD.

Died - A child of Mrs. Anna SCOTT

Died - In Kingston Mrs. GALLUP, at an advanced age.

Died - At Wysox within a short time, three melancholy and fatal accidents have happened. Mrs. Lydia STROPE was thrown from a light waggon, by the horse's suddenly starting - She survived the fall but a few seconds.

Died - A child of Nathaniel HICOCK jr. was so burnt by its clothes taking fire, that medical assistance was called in vain, and after four days of pain breathed its last.

Died - On Wednesday the 28th December, Miss Lydia DOLTON, aged about 15 years, fell asleep by the fire, and the candle is supposed to have overset in her lap. The flame of her clothes awoke her in distraction. She ran out of doors and could not be caught until she was so dreadfully burnt that she survived only till Friday night.

New Goods - E. CAREY. Has received and offers for sale a general assortment to Merchandise. Pittston.

Notice - Is hereby given that the sale of unseated Lands, within the former limits of the County of Luzerne (before the organization of the Counties of Bradford and Susquehanna) for arrearages of taxes thereon due, will commence at the Court House in the Borough of Wilkes-Barre on Wednesday the 15th day of February next, at two o'clock P. M. Nathan PALMER, Treasurer of Luzerne County.

13 Jan. 1815

Appointment by the Commissioners. Nathan PALMER, Esq. to be Treasurer of the County of Luzerne.

Dead Man Found. On the 27th December last the Coroner was called to hold an Inquest on the body of a man who was found dead in the woods in Providence District, Luzerne County. It is thought he had missed the way, and that he perished from cold. He was supposed to be about 60 years of age, 55 feet 8 or 9 inches high, and of a middling size. He was poorly dressed, and had no property with him - nor any thing by which his name or residence could be discovered. Democrat

Died - At Abington, not long since, Mrs. Mary CLARK, aged about 50 years; consort of Deacon Wm. CLARK.

Died - A Child of William CLARK Jr.

Died - At the (Plains) Pittston, Jesse GARDNER.

Turnpike Election Results (see The Advertiser, 6 Jan. 1815)

Stray Heifer. Came to my enclosure about the last of November, a red Heifer two years old, marked with a crop off the left ear. The owner is requested to prove property pay charges and take her away. John DENNISON, Kingston.

Strayed from Enclosure of the Subscriber last fall, a two year old black Heifer, whoever will take up said Heifer and return it to the owner shall be handsomely rewarded. John WILSON, Tunkhannock.

Attention the Drill!! The Members of the Wilkes-Barre Drill Company are requested to meet in the upper room of the Court House precisely at 3 o'clock on Saturday, punctual attendance is earnestly requested, as business of importance is to be transacted. Gentlemen in the Borough and its vicinity desirous of becoming members of the Company are respectfully invited to come forward and make known their names. By order of the Captain, G. GORDON, Sergeant.

Letters at Kingston Post Office (See Advertiser, 20 Jan. 1815)

To Contractors, Proposals will be received until the first of April next for making a Turnpike Road from the village of new-Town to the head of the Seneca Lake, distance 21 miles. By order of the Directors, Thos. MAXWELL, New-Town (or Elmira).

Our sportsmen have had fine fun the week past. The valley has been visited by innumerable flocks of pigeons. The thing is quite unusual at this season. They are very fine and fat. Several good shots have been made; and Mr. L. YARINGTON killed 14 at one discharge of his gun. Whether they have been driven from their winter residence at Florida, and the neighborhood of New-Orleans, by the battles fighting there, I presume not to conjecture. They have heretofore been caught with rice in their crops, which indicates their southern residence, and the rapidity of their flight. By the bye, I have heard it said, and I think it probable, that the war on the Lakes has driven from thence the wild geese that used to breed there in such abundance.

Exhibition at the Wilkes-Barre Academy by scholars of Rev. Wm. WOODBRIDGE.

Bite of the Viper. Mr. Miner, Should the following remarkable occurrence, in your opinion merit publicity, you are at liberty to insert it in you Gleaner. The authenticity of the fact need not be doubted. In this country it is singular only at this season of the year, when we might suppose that reptiles of every description, were in the state of torpidity, denned up for the winter.
On Monday the 2nd inst., Mrs. LACY, wife of Daniel LACY, living towards the upper end of this town, on the east side of the river, went into the cellar early in the morning to get some sauce to prepare for breakfast, without a light. When in the act of picking up the sauce, she felt the force of a quick push, or blow on the hand, which occasioned instant and intolerable smarting. She immediately cried out she was bitten by a snake, and hurried away from the place as soon as possible. A candle was lighted and search made for the enemy. On his being discovered he provided to be that species of viper well known in this vicinity by the name of "Pilot."
In its history, by some of the Geographers, I think it is called the Rattle-snake, its cousin. But as respects the deleterious effects of their virus pervading the human system, their similarity is such as, I believe, admits of no discrimination.
I saw the woman about five hours after the bite. The extreme pain and tumefaction of the hand and arm, was accompanied with a sensation of languor peculiar to incidents so alarming; and was diffused over the whole system. However, from the present aspect of symptoms, I conclude (though with some hesitation) the patient will recover. Braintrim, Jan. 5th.

Married - On Wednesday Evening last by the Rev'd. Mr. LANE, John O. ROSAKRANS, to Miss Elizabeth C. HAINES, all of Wilkes-Barre.

Died - At Providence on Tuesday last, Miss Polly ATHERTON, aged 12 years, daughter of Eleazer ATHERTON.

Died - In this town Mrs. KENNEDY at an advanced age.

Came into the enclosure of the subscriber, on or about the first of October last, one ox, about six years old, principally of a redish colour - with a white face, and high horns - no artificial mark. The owner is requested to prove property, pay charges, and take him away. David SHOEMAKER, Braintrim.

Manlius Plaster, either ground or in stone, in any quantities, for sale at the subscriber's mills and plaster bed at James Vill (Manlius, Onodaga, NY. Benj. CARPENTER.

New-Orleans. 21 Dec. ...Considerable reinforcements under Gens. COFFEE and CARROLLA have arrived and so many more were on their way to join Gen. JACKSON that he would soon have a greater force than could be conveniently accommodated or used with advantage. No attack had been made or attempted by the enemy.....

Died - At Buffalo, NY, Lieut. Charles Marshall MACOMB, of the corps of artillery, aged 22. He fell in an unfortunate rencontre with Capt. John W. GOOKIN, of the same corps, at the second fire. He was the youngest brother of the distinguished Major-General MACOMB, and a native of the city of New York.

Died - At Halfmoon, NY, of the Hydrophobia, William MARVIN, 16, son of Daniel MARVIN, of that town.

On digging a grave in the Friends' burying-ground in Arch-street, on Wednesday, the 11th inst., the following lines were found on a soap stone Tombstone some distance below the surface of the ground - Here Lies A Plant. Too Many See It; Flovrish't And Perish't In Half a Minvte. Joseph BAKESTRAW, the son of William, 30 day of Sept. 1700, shot by a negro in the 19th year and 4th month of his age.

On Sunday night some person or persons broke into the Prothonotary's office in the Court House, forcing the hall door apparently by the aid of a jimmy. The vault door was blown open with some kind of explosive, and the contents of the vault and drawers throughout the office were ransacked. Nothing appears to be missing, however, except a ten cent piece. There were two cigars, a pipe and smoking tobacco, some stamps and checks for small amounts very handy, but none of these were disturbed. The object of the burglary is therefore a mystery, and it will, perhaps, always remain so. Whoever did the job was either ignorant enough to think the vault contained big money, or wished to secure some paper which he imagined worth to him the great trouble of forcing his way into the office and then into the vault. Had he waited until Monday no doubt Deputy Prothonotary Piatt would have willingly permitted him to make his research without so much hard labor.

A chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution is being organized here, and the prospect is that it will start with a charter membership of about thirty. There has been some extreme researches here during the past few months, and perhaps some applicants for membership will be admitted on rather shady evidence of relationship with the Revolution, but it is quite the proper thing just now to be a Daughter of the American Revolution, and those who cannot search out the proper evidence to entitle them to membership, although in the majority, are considered the unfortunate ones -- the greater the majority, the greater the misfortune.

William DOLPH, committed suicide near his home at Lake Winola. He was a son of Hiram DOLPH. He left home to go to his sister's, Mrs. Lorey WALTERS, Post Hill, after dinner he asked about her husband's gun telling her it was rusty and he would take it home and clean it. When he did not return home the next forenoon, the father began inquiring and became somewhat alarmed. His body was found about 40 rods from the Walter home. A charge of shot had entered his breast just to the right of the heart and death must have been instantaneous. He was 22 years old. Under a stone near the body was found a slip of paper containing the following written with a led pencil: "Lorey: I care not to live any longer in this world, for home is too unpleasant for me. Tell Art that I will give him my watch, and want him to take all the money I have and collect other bills and bury me, and that is all I will say." Coroner MEADE decided an inquest would be unnecessary, as the evidence of the cause of death was beyond dispute.

Funeral will be held from the house this afternoon, interment in Sunnyside Cemetery.

The badly decomposed body of W. P. LUKENS was found Sunday morning by boys picking berries in the woods near the "Notch" on the West Mountain, Lackawanna. Nothing indicated foul play. Undertakers refused to touch the body, it is supposed because of its general poor appearance, which indicated that the poor board would have to settle. After the coroner's inquest found a paper in his pocketbook announcing the election of William P. LUKENS as supervisor of Ripley Township, Delaware County, also a bill made out to that address, word was sent to the authorities of that township for information regarding Mr. LUKENS. His body was later identified by his son. It is thought that death was the result of nervous prostration, as a recent attack of grip had left him in a very weak condition.

George TURNER, of Ransom, met with a horrible death on Friday afternoon, being literally cut to pieces by the cars. He lived opposite the Ransom station and was employed there, had charge of certain lamps of the Hall block signal system. On Friday afternoon found him below Ransom, in the vicinity of the poor farm, looking after his lamps. Meeting a west bound freight train he stepped to one side, and as soon as it passed he stepped upon the track, crossing to the east bound track. The noise of the train just passed prevented him from hearing the approach of the milk express which struck him. His head was cut off above the chin and he was otherwise cut. The train stopped and picked up the remains, taking them to L. and B. Junction, and then sent to Ransom on evening train. Mrs. TURNER was back in the country about 2 miles berrying at the time of the accident, and by the time she had been notified and returned home the remains were at the house. Besides his wife, he is survived by 2 small children.

In Thurston Hollow, a sad accident on Sunday resulted in the death of Ralph DE GRAW, aged 13. It appears that Harold, a 4 year-old brother of Ralph found an old revolver about the house, and as he had played with a toy pistol he thought no harm could come from the revolver, and the result was that he shot his brother through the breast, the bullet entering the left side and passing out the right side, killing him instantly. The father of those boys committed suicide about a year ago by taking poison. The boys lived with their mother.

Pittston Gazette, Tuesday: Miss Ann CARRIER, who works for Hugh HUGHES on Luzerne Ave., left today for Mehoopany to see if her brother who resides in Black Walnut, near there had committed suicide. Her attention was called this morning to a little item in one of the papers that a man, Allen CARRIER, had committed at that place on Saturday last. She had a brother by that same name who was living somewhere in that neighborhood and believes that this is the one, so has gone there on a sad mission.

A drowning accident about one mile from Wyalusing on Tuesday afternoon. Several boys had gone to the "swimming hole" that day just after dinner, one of them, George CURTIS, aged 16, who resided at Marshview, not far from Wyalusing. CURTIS crossed the creek, and raised his right hand above his head and sank to the bottom to show the boys how deep the water was at that point. Nothing more was thought of it for some minutes, when inquiry was made for CURTIS, and his companions realized that he had not appeared after going down. Help was summoned from town and a man by the name of BRUCE dove to the bottom and brought the body up. All efforts to restore life were of no avail, and the dead boy's parents were informed of the awful accident.

Nicholson Examiner: Harry FISH, a farmer who lived midway between here and Hopbottom, has been detected in the perpetration of a heinous crime by making use of arsenic to rid himself of his wife, and when this fact became know it created a public sensation. As we learn the facts of the matter: His wife, by inheritance was the owner of the farm, and for some considerable time past Harry has been strongly importuning her to make the title over to him, and about 3 weeks ago succeeded in getting her to do so, and now having secured to himself the title, desired to get rid of his wife and hit upon a plan of doing so by adopting slow poisoning process and to this end got a quantity of arsenic at the Wheeler Pharmacy, claiming he wanted to kill rats. Soon after this the wife became sick and Dr. Decker was called and was much puzzled over the symptoms of the case and after a few visits his suspicion was aroused and he exerted some tact to ascertain the true state affairs and by so doing learned by Mate, Harry's wife, that she had been taking a powder that Harry had been giving her. This gave the doctor a means by which he could account for the strange symptoms that has so perplexed him and developed such facts as led Mrs. N. L. WALKER and Mrs. M. K. WALKER, relatives of Mate to visit her; and Mrs. N. L., having some keys she had taken with her to make available in the case, if occasion required, which it did, and fortunately one key which she had fitted Harry's chest lock, which she opened and in it found the arsenic. The arsenic he had given his wife and which she had been induced to take by false representation, had brought her near death's door, but with proper care and medical treatment she will soon be well again. He was arrested, after which he made an assignment of all his property to M. K. MC MILLAN in trust for his wife, and eluded the constable and skipped the country to parts unknown.

31 July 1903

Henry W. KYTTLE, of Kingston, divorced his 1st wife in 1898, and four years later md. the second time, was on Saturday confronted with the accusation that he was living in adultery, his first wife reappearing on the scene and making the charge that the divorce which he thought freed him from her was not legal. He faced Alderman POLLOCK to answer the charge, he learned that his 1st wife's charges were only too true, and he was compelled to give bail for a further hearing. An examination of the divorce paper showed that the names of some of the officials of the court had been forged to the document. Steps were at once taken to secure another divorce, and it is believed when it is shown the first wife that KYTTLE was imposed upon she will relent and not press her suit. Wilkes Barre Record

On Sunday, John BUTLER, wife and infant son were riding in a carriage which was struck by the Black Diamond on the crossing at Port Bowkley, near North Wilkes-Barre, and all three are dead. He was thrown on the left of the track, body bent out of shape, showing a number of broken bones, he was still alive but unconscious. She was laying on the other side of the track, horribly cut and bruised, killed instantly. The infant at first could not be found, but one of the train crew found the body wedged between a cylinder and wheel, it's head down in the machinery, skull crushed and mangled. The father was taken to the hospital and died soon after. Bodies were taken to the home in Westmoor, which a few hours before they had left in health and happiness.

An attempt to lynch John PEEL, DL & W Co. detective was made Saturday night at Foster, Susquehanna Co., by a crowd of villagers. He had secured evidence during the day to convict a number of the village citizens of stealing brass and other junk from the company. The cries of "lynch him" were heard as he waited for the 7 PM train, he ran for the waiting room and locked the door. Word was sent to Scranton for help, the train arrived and the crew helped protect the detective. There will probably be some arrests made as no less than 15 of the mob are known.

Drowned! The wife of Solomon Roberts, living some four or five miles above this place, was drowned in the Susquehanna River on Friday night last. It seems that Mr. and Mrs. Roberts started from this place about dark in a carriage, to return home by way of the tow-path and had got nearly in sight of home, when from some cause, the irons attaching the poll to the wagon, gave way, and the wagon was precipitated down a steep embankment into the River, where the water was deep and current swift. Mr. Roberts succeeded in swimming to the shore, but his wife together with the wagon, was carried down the River. As soon as the alarm was given, every effort was made to rescue the drowning woman, but the water was high and rough, and all their efforts proved unavailing. She was last heard to cry for help about a mile above this place, since which time, nothing has been heard or seen of her or the wagon. She was about sixty years of age, a mother of a large family and a woman highly esteemed by the community in which she resided.

Person Note for Reuben Taylor

These notes for Reuben come from the New Fitch Family File which is mainly the Norwalk Fitch family. As most of this concerns the Reuben family of PA will also put here. In the NFFF I have Reuben as the son of Reuben Taylor and Eunice Couch. Perhaps that is not correct but will add more info as I find it.
This Reuben was no doubt the neighbor of John Fitch, but not sure of his ancestor line.

Here is what is in the other file on this Reuben, born 1732 according to Shoemaker:

I am adding information here about "a" Reuben Taylor who would have been born about the right time for this Reuben, Jr. Can always delete it or copy it to the correct Reuben Taylor when we find him. We are interested in Reuben Taylor as he was the neighbor of John Fitch who moved to Luzerne (now Wyoming) County, PA about 1788.

From Michael Shoemaker Book, pp 67 and 68 gives:

REUBEN TAYLOR, an early town clerk of Providence Township or District in the town of Westmoreland, was born 1732 and died in Northmoreland Township, Luzerne, now Wyoming Co., PA, on April 16, 1807, in his 76th year. His wife, REBECCA, formerly of Norwich (?), Conn., born about 1735 died in Northmoreland, now Falls Township, PA, in November 1829. In 1790 they resided in Luzerne County, PA., and had in the family living at home

Mr. Taylor
2 males over 16 ..... born before 1774
1 male under 16.....born 1774-1790
1 female

Also a Reuben Taylor who had just one male over 16, and one female in his census count.

This may be the son of the above Reuben.

They are buried in Robert's Cemetery, Falls, Wyoming Co., PA.
Two of their children were:

REUBEN, JR. and
THADDEUS, born March 1761, died June 27, 1830. His wife's name was MABEL_____
He is buried in Robert's Cemetery. Some of his children were:
WAKEMAN married ELIZABETH_____-
LYDIA married October 24, 1827, WILLIAM WRIGHT, by Miles Avery, Esq.
HORATIO, born 1812, died May 7, 1852
UNKNOWN MALE.....
married ELIZABETH, dau. of David and Thankful (Couch)

Morehouse

From the Luzerne Co., Newspaper.....REUBEN TAYLOR died Northmoreland Twp., near the 3 Islands on April 16, 1807, aged 76 years, a native of Norwalk, Conn. Notice that he was a native of NORWALK. (born about 1731)

Also we have Rebecca, wife of Reuben, died November, 1829, 94 years, formerly of Norwalk.
(making her birthdate about 1735)(I believe the note above said "Norwich", but my guess is that that is incorrect and it was supposed to be Norwalk.)

The 1800 Census of Luzerne County shows that Reuben, Noah and Thaddeus Taylor were nearby neighbors of John Fitch and shows the land of Thaddeus Taylor adjoining John Fitch.

The History of Wyoming County, Falls Township, Pa:

Reuben Taylor settled before 1793
The area around his neighborhood was called "Taylortown" for a long time.
He settled on the flats above the falls.

From all the above appearances it is very likely that this is the Reuben Taylor who made the move to Falls PA and was a neighbor of John Fitch. Dates are certainly about right. As yet I have not put it in the Fitch Family File and leave it here in the New Fitch Family File.

At this time we do not have a direct ancestor line for this Reuben. It seems likely he was from Reuben and Eunice, but then we have a Reuben called Reuben the 3rd and if so then the first Reuben may be of another line. Shoemaker tells of him, but does not make the line clear. Some of the Taylors were in that part of the country in 1775-78. (later on line genealogies say Reuben, Reuben, John, John, and John who was the immigrant)

Also probably Noah was also a son of Reuben, and brother of Thaddeus and was named in a local writeup of a History of Falls Township in 1879 in the Wyoming Democrat.

"On the flats above lived Noah and Thaddeus Taylor, Abraham Holmes and David Dailey, all men of mark, and who left their impress upon the neighborhood.

Genealogies on Ancestry.com vary quite a bit and have said that Reuben moved from Norwalk, to Westchester Co., N.Y., back to Norwalk, to Orange Co., NY, and then to Scranton, PA and finally to Falls. We actually find the family in the Falls area of PA in the 1800 census. History says they came before 1793.

This doesn't make clear about the Reuben who was listed as living in Susquehanna in 1790 when they took some of his property to cover some debts and judgments that were made against him. They stated in the judgement that he was now in Susquehanna, PA. Need to find where he was in the 1790 census I guess. I have them in the 1800 census but not 1790. Perhaps they were in Scranton which might have also been termed "Susquehanna, PA". However these judgments may belong to the son Reuben and not to the father. See judgment below and also under the son's name.

SHERIFF AND REUBEN TAYLOR

TO THE SHERIFF of the county of Fairfield or his deputy or either of the constables of the Town of Norwalk or Newtown within said county Greeting WHEREAS John Dean of Danbury in said county on the 22nd day of March before Eli Mygatt, Esquire, Justice of the Peace for the county of Fairfield recovered judgment against REUBEN TAYLOR late of Newtown in said county now residing in Susquahanah, State of Pennsylvania, for the sum of 1 pound, 4 shillings, lawful money debt and for the sum of ½ 0 - 14 - 2 costs of suit as appears of record whereof execution remains to be done, THESE, are therefore by authority of the state of Connecticut to command you that of the money, goods, chattels or lands of the said Taylor, within your precincts, you cause to be levied and the same being disposed of as the law directs paid and satisfied unto the said Dean, the aforesaid sum being ½ 1 - 18 - 2 lawful money in the whole with one shilling lawful money more for this writ together with your fees and for want of such money, goods, or chattels to be by him shown unto you or found within your precincts to the acceptance of the said Dean for the satisfying the afore said sum, you are thereby commanded to take the body of the said Taylor and him commit unto the keeper of the gaol in Danbury in the county of Fairfield aforesaid within the said prison who is likewise hereby commanded to receive the said Taylor and him safely keep until he pay unto the said Dean the full sum above mentioned and be by him released and also to satisfy your fees hereof, fail not and make due return of this writ with your doings thereon according to law within 60 days next coming, dated at Danbury this 22nd day of March A.D. 1790.

ELI MYGOTT, Justice of the Peace

Norwalk, April 15th, 1790 Then for want of personal estate shown unto me or to be found, I levied the within execution by direction of the within named creditor on a certain piece of land in said Norwalk, near Saugatuck Bridge as the within named debtor's estate and on the same day I caused the same to be appraised by 3 freeholders,

Samuel Gruman, Samuel Platt, Daniel Nash, all of Norwalk, who were all appointed by Eliphalet Lockwood Esquire, Justice of the Peace for the county of Fairfield (the debtor neglecting in appearing to make choice of any) which appraisers being sworn viewed the said land and did appraise the same at 12 pounds lawful money per acre or by their certificate hereunto annexed appears.

Execution being 1 - 19 - 2
And cost 16 - 2
Making 2 - 15 - 4

I therefore caused 37 rods of said land bounded Northerly by Stephen Raymond's land
East by Capt. Taylor's lot, so called
Southerly by the remaining part of said land now taken by execution in favor of James Dunning
Westerly by the path to his well, with the liberty of said path
To be delivered to said creditor in full satisfaction of the execution, cost of levying, appraising and fees 16/2.

This certifies that the appraisors under oath did appraise the above described land in manner and at the rate mentioned.

Rebecca WEEKS & Reuban TAYLOR of Norwalk

Earlene Hutsell (View posts) Posted: 10 Mar 1999 12:00PM GMT
Classification: Query
Surnames: WEEKS, TAYLOR, MORGAN
Rebecca WEEKS, B. 1735, Norwich, CT, Mar C 1758 in Norwalk to Reuban TAYLOR, b. 1732 in Norwalk, son of Reuban, John, John, and John (immigrant) They moved to Westchester Co., N. Y., where several children were born at Cortland Manor, then back to Norwalk, then to Orange Co., NY, then to Scanton, PA where they stayed for a few years before moving to Falls, Wyoming Co, PA. Reuban died there in Apr 1807, and Rebecca in Nov 1829. They had 9 children. Need Rebecca WEEKS' parents. MORGAN-TAYLOR Mable MORGAN B. C 1760 in Westchaster, N. Y., mar Thaddeus TAYLOR, B. 1754. They lived for years in Norwalk, the TYLOR home since 1630., then moved on to Westchester again, then Organe Co., N. Y., then to Scranton, PA, then fianlly to Falls, Wyoming Co., PA where they died Marble in Dec 1859 and Thaddeus in Jun 1830. They had three proven children.

Sorry there doesn't seem to be a match. My Reuban was born in 1732 in Norwalk. He married Rebecca WEEKS(B. 1735 in Norwich) They moved to Cortland Manor in Westchester Co., where my ancestor, Thaddeus was born in 1767. Then the family moved back to Connecticut, and finally to Falls, in Wyoming county, PA. He died there in 1809 and she in 1826. They did have a REuban as a son, but he married someone else. May I sugggest you try the Newbury Library in Boston. They have a copy of the "Taylor Family from Connecticut to PA., and you might find a clue in it. The Taylor family goes back to the Windsor Fleet, and they came over in 1630. There is a site on the web for the Windsor fleet, listing all the people who came over. CT and MA have excellent records of wills, property, etc. Thanks for writing, sorry we can't make a match. Earlene

Sorry, I don't have your Reuban at all. I have (starting in 1630 with the immigration) of 3 Johns, then 3 Reubans, thenThaddeus,Wakeman, then the name died out when Wakeman's daughter Lydia married Jabez Taylor in 1846 in Wyoming Co., PA.

This Taylor family started out in MA, in 1630, then migrated to Norwalk, CT. John 2, died in the French and Indian Wars. Reuban and my Rebecca moved to Westchester Co., N.Y., then on to Scranton, PA. Their son Reuban was in both the army and the navy during the REv. War., as was my Reuban, altho" he was really too old to serve. He, Rebecca, Thaddeus and his wife Mable, and my Wakeman are all buried in the Falls, PA Cem. some in unmarked graves, but Reuban has a Rev. War bronze marker.

Sorry we can't connect. I've been looking for the parents of Rebecca (WEEKS), Mable (MORGAN), Thaddeus wife and Elizabeth (VAN TUYL), Wakeman's wife for many years. Very frustrating since I can go back to the 1400's on the TAYLOR's in England.

Thanks for writing and if you every run across my Rebecca, plase write again. Good Hunting. Earlene
